

INSKIERS CABIN CANCELLATION POLICY

- When a reservation has been confirmed, you are obligated to pay for your reservation and will be billed accordingly.
- If road conditions cause you to miss your arrival date (Cal Trans must have a forced road closure in effect) then a credit will be provided for the night missed.
- All cancellations for weekend nights (Fri. and Sat.) must be made by Thursday noon prior to when weekend bedding assignments are issued. Cancellations for non-weekend days must be made 24 hours prior to your planned arrival.
- If a reservation is made and cancelled and the cabin isn't full (we haven't turned anyone away), a credit will go on account for use later in the season. However, if a reservation is cancelled and we had to turn guests away and could not refill the spots, the nightly fee is lost. If you paid an individual cabin night reservation and need to cancel, then you will be issued a credit which can be used by you for a future reservation prior to the closure of the ski cabin for the season. You must follow the cancellation rules stated above to receive a credit
- If you have a cabin package and you need to cancel, then your days will be credited back to your package. There is no refund for cabin packages. . You must follow the cancellation rules stated above to receive a credit.
- You are encouraged to use your credits. Refunds for individual cabin night reservations will only be given after the closure of the ski cabin.
